MUSIC

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

MR. FRANCIS PORTLAND
Director of Choral Music

The A Cappella Choir, under the musical genius of Mr. Francis M. Portland, has once again consummated a successful year. The choir combined quality with quantity this term, as one hundred twenty-five members of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes sang with the unit.

The vocalists made numerous public appearances during the Christmas and concert seasons. Among the organizations for which they sang were the combined service clubs of Pottsville, American Legion Auxiliary, the Pottsville Lionettes, the Schuylkill County Service Club, and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

The choir presented two concerts to a capacity audience. The first, on December 7, consisted of the sacred music of Pergolesi, Saint Saens, and Benjamin Britten, balanced by lighter selections of Christmas cheer. The spring concert, which was performed on May 3, was a pleasant mixture of popular, melodic numbers such as Moon River and Exodus and thrilling choral selections such as Hallelujah from "Mount of Olives," by Beethoven, and Bach's Crucifixus.

The scenery for both concerts was again praised highly. Both the church scene and the spring scene were made by Mr. Portland and the choir.

MR. ARTHUR DELPAZ
Director of Instrumental Music

THE POTTSVILLE AREA

"Here will we sit and let the sound of music creep in our ears."

—Lorenzo to Jessica in
THE MERCHANT OF VENICE.

Lorenzo was obviously in the Pottsville High School auditorium on April 13, 1967, when he made that statement, for that was the date of the thirty-first annual Spring Concert of the Pottsville High School Band. On that evening the auditorium was imbued with the sounds of suites and show tunes, marches and overtures. The band also aroused Christmas spirit with selections before the student body on December 21.

During marching season, intricate drills were based around the pompous French National Defile March. the driving tempos of spirituals, and the familiar strains of contemporary show selections.

The ubiquitous whistle of the handsome Mr. Arthur Delpaz once again sounded loud and shrill above the snappy tones of the trumpets, the creamy tones of the clarinets, the imposing tones of the basses, the mellow tones of the French horns, and the dulcet tones of the low woodwinds.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

This season the band was more outgoing than in years past. It participated in the Hamburg King Frost Parade, the Bucknell University Homecoming Parade and football game at Lewisburg, the Pretzel Bowl Parade and football game at Reading, the County Band Festival at Schuylkill Haven, the Firemen's Parade at Palo Alto, the Hallowe'en and Memorial Day Parades at Pottsville, the Memorial Day Parade at New Philadelphia, and at numerous strawberry festivals. The 101 musicians concluded the year playing for the Commencement exercises.

Throughout the year the band had the support of the Crimson Aides, the band parents' association.

Mike Kiehner, alto clarinet, and Rosemary Gentile, B-flat clarinet, represented the band at the P. M. E. A. Eastern District Band at Boyertown High School. Mike Kiehner was also the band's representative at the Region II State Band Festival at Conrad Weiser High School. Thirty-three band members participated in the Twin Valley Band Festival at Pine Grove High School.

This year, ten interested musicians took part in a theory class conducted by Mr. Delpaz.

VOCATIONAL BOYS' CHOIR

This is the second year for the Vocational Choir. It is composed of approximately thirty senior boys from the four vocational departments. The boys presented several fine programs and participated in both the Christmas and the Spring Concerts.

This group is one which brings pride to Pottsville Area High School, and it is hoped that it will serve as an inspiration for others to join in song.

Mr. Francis Portland is in charge of the choir.

HIGHLAND LASSIES

MR. ARTHUR REINSMITH
Director

The Highland Lassies, better known as the "Kilts," was first organized fourteen years ago. The twenty-six pipers and six drummers claim the privilege of being the only all-girl bagpipe and drum corps in the eastern United States.

This unique group participates in the pre-game entertainment at all PAHS football games and in the Spring Concert. The Kilts frequently contribute to holiday parades such as the annual St. Patrick's Day parade in Allentown and the Hallowe'en Parade in Pottsville.

The Highland Lassies have been under the direction of Mr. Arthur Reinsmith for the past thirteen years.

PEP BAND

The Pep Band, otherwise known as Clauser's Cads, performed at all home basketball games and all basketball pep rallies. The members of the band have been trying to claim the credit for our team's successful season, and who is about to argue with them while they have those deadly instruments in hand?

Student Conductor Dave Clauser grinned and bore the heavy responsibility of keeping thirty musicians under control.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, Pottsville Area High School's only scholarship fraternity, has been active in our school since it was chartered in 1936.

In order to raise capital, the society sells "mums" for the Thanksgiving Day football game. Over the years, this practice has grown into a tradition at Pottsville Area High.

The society is composed of the top fifteen members of the senior class. It is required that they achieve honor roll status at least five of the six grading periods throughout their senior year. Upon graduation, all those remaining in the society receive a gold pin as a reward for their efforts .

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Pottsville Area High School is one of the oldest organizations in the school. It was instituted in 1926 to promote better student faculty relations and to improve the general welfare of the student body.

The membership of the Council consists of one representative from each homeroom, elected in the beginning of the school term. The officers of the Council are chosen by the entire student body in the spring preceding their term of office.

The activities of this year's Council included a combination of both old and new. In keeping with tradition, Penny-A-Week, presentation of lyceum programs, and the sale of soft drinks at the basketball games were continued. New activities included a donation of $100 to the United Fund, the sponsoring of buses to away football games, and a visit to Channel 8 Dance Party.

LARES ET ARTES ROMANORUM

A bit of ancient Rome is revived at the regular meetings of the Lares et Artes Romanorum, or works and arts of the Romans, translated freely.

Passing a rigid test and maintaining a "C" average in Latin are requisites for admission to the club.

As usual, the club members sponsored a Christmas basket for a needy family and staged an authentic Roman banquet, with delicious food, flowing togas, and obedient slaves. This year, nine new members participated in a play illustrating the contemporary use of Latin.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

El Circulo Espanol was organized with the purpose of stressing the cultural aspects of the Spanish-speaking countries and of promoting a conversational interest among the students studying the language.

During the school term, meetings are held monthly, and programs dealing with culture and conversation are presented.

Membership in the club is limited to the students who have completed the Spanish II or the Spanish III courses. Simply electing these subjects does not insure membership, for an examination is given at the end of the year, and only those who attain a "C" average are admitted into the club.

HI-S-POTTS NEWSPAPER

The Hi-S-Potts Newspaper completed its fortieth year of successive publication with the issues of 1966-'67. Among the editions of the current year were the Thanksgiving and Christmas issues.

Publication costs present the gravest problem for the present staff to surmount.

A total of fifty students comprised the four staffs of the newspaper.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club consists of sixty girls who are interested in books and are willing to volunteer their services in the library during their study periods, before school, and after school.

Having been organized in 1929, the Library Club trains its members to be assistants in the school library. This not only provides effective and practical experience, but also helps the librarian with routine work.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE CLUB

The American Field Service Club was organized to promote and support the student exchange program at Pottsville Area High School.

It consists of students selected in the spring of each year from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes.

This year's club members sold sweatshirts and candy in order to raise the necessary funds to sustain the program.

We were pleased to have Noor M. Dosty, who came from Afghanistan in September, as this year's American Field Service exchange student, and Pia Wahlstrom, who came from Sweden in September, as this year's Rotary exchange student.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB

Distributive Education is a vocational program designed to increase the efficiency, earning power, and competency that will lead to success in a career in distribution.

This program is sponsored by the state and federal government and is offered to boys and girls of Pottsville Area High School through the cooperation of the Board of Education, the school administration, and the local merchants. It enables students enrolled in Distributive Education to "earn as they learn." They engage in a study of marketing and merchandising, which leads to occupations in retailing, advertising, financing, wholesaling, transportation, and manufacturing.

One out of every two employed Americans work in distributive occupations. Therefore, specialized training is necessary for students who have an interest in distributive and marketing business.

Qualified high school students work part-time and receive on-the-job instruction in an approved distribution occupation.

During school hours, students enroll in D. E. classes in which they receive group instruction in general marketing and distribution and individual instruction in specific areas such as ready-to-wear, credit, advertising, display, personnel, and other phases of marketing.

MICHAEL BRENNAN
President

Students enrolled in the Distributive Education program have the opportunity of participating in regional, state, and national contests, thus receiving recognition for their classwork.

Each year the class sponsors a Student-Merchant Dinner which gives the students the pleasure of feting the merchants who provided work experience throughout the year.

Several valuable awards are made to the outstanding students of the class at the Class Day activities.

ALPHA IOTA DELTA

The Alpha Iota Delta consists of a group of twenty-five girls who are chosen for membership on the basis of scholarship, leadership, participation in school activities, and cooperation in all phases of school life.

The organization, whose Greek name was chosen to represent the letters AID, was started with the purpose of giving service not only in school, but also in the community. To uphold this ideal the girls participate in the Heart, Cancer, and March of Dimes fund-raising campaigns. At Christmas-time, an assortment of food, consisting of every conceivable item, is given to a worthy family whose name is never revealed to the members. During the year, collections are taken at the regular meetings to buy CARE packages which are sent to needy areas in foreign countries. The girls help to serve the Biddie Basketball Banquet and also participate in many of the school's activities.

During the Christmas holidays, the members enjoy a luncheon, to which former members are invited to get acquainted with new members and to renew friendship with others. In the spring of each year, a formal dance is sponsored by the Alpha Iota Delta. It has become an outstanding social event of the Pottsville Area High School.

TAU KAPPA DELTA

The Tau Kappa Delta is a fraternal organization composed of seven seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores. These thirteen members are chosen for outstanding participation in at least one activity, qualities of leadership, and satisfactory scholastic standing.

Near the end of the school term, three juniors, two sophomores, and two freshmen are chosen by the seven graduating seniors.

Dr. Albert Knight organized the club in 1924, and it is the oldest club in the school. This is T. K. D.'s forty-second year of existence.

The activities of T. K. D. are the annual Thanksgiving and spring Farmer-Farmerette dances, the paying of the graduation expenses of some needy senior, awarding twenty-five dollars to a senior athlete aspiring to attend college, awarding a trophy to the most valuable athlete of P. A. H. S., offering the services of the club for any reasonable request by the school administration, and one trip to a sporting event each year.

1966 FOOTBALL SEASON

Head Coach Ruddy completed his fourth winning football season in four years at Pottsville Area High. The Crimson Tide, which plays the toughest schedule of any team in this area, compiled an admirable record of six wins and five defeats.

The squad was hampered by an unusually large number of injuries to key players this past season. Nevertheless, Coach Ruddy and his able staff managed to maintain on his team the fighting spirit and will to win for which Pottsville Area High gridiron teams have been famous through the years.

The outlook is favorable for perhaps an even more successful season in 1967.

POTTSVILLE 26 — BLUE MOUNTAIN 0

Our revenge-minded squad, determined to equalize last year's defeat, began its season victoriously. As in previous seasons, the Crimson Tide was uncertain and shaky for its initial contest, but solid play by Pete Fox, Jim Glenn, and Karl Lombel helped resolve victory. Co-captain Fox suffered a fractured leg which was to sideline him for the remainder of the season.

POTTSVILLE 19 — MAHANOY AREA 7

Dan Guers and Jim Glenn provided the one-two scoring punch in Pottsville's first away game. Guers amazed the Golden Bears by streaking for two explosive touchdowns. Our offensive line, especially Jess Achenbach, Bob Kuss, and John Mataka, did an outstanding job of blocking and opening holes for our backs.

POTTSVILLE 21 — TAMAQUA 13

The Bulldogs extended their winning streak by capitalizing on two first-period Tamaqua fumbles. Because of a muddy turf, the fullbacks did the lion's share of the running. John Albring and Charley Hopkins each made important touchdowns.

POTTSVILLE 12 — PANTHER VALLEY 18

Because of a postponement, this game was played on a Monday night at Lansford. It was the most exciting contest of the season and one of the hardest played. Panther Valley pulled a victory out of the fire on a touchdown pass in the final minutes of play. Guers, on a 78-yard pass-run, and Glenn, on a 65-yard punt return, provided our only scores. Floyd Baskerville played a key role in stopping several P. V. drives.

POTTSVILLE 7 — SHAMOKIN 19

Pottsville returned home for its second game within five days and found itself overmatched by a strong Shamokin eleven. The Crimson Tide was unable to capitalize on several scoring opportunities. Pottsville's lone TD came in the second period on an 82-yard sprint by Don Fessler.

POTTSVILLE 27 — SHENANDOAH 20

In the comeback of the year, Pottsville, which trailed 20-6 at one point in the game, came alive for two fourth-period touchdowns to gain victory. Pottsville's depth accounted for the win, as the Shenandoah club was obviously tired during the second half. Speedster Dan Guers opened the Bulldogs' scoring with an 80-yard kickoff runback. Halfback Dennis Spiess, playing a great game, plunged for the tying touchdown, and minutes later Karl Lombel made the winning score an an end run.

POTTSVILLE 14 — MOUNT CARMEL 47

Mount Carmel was just too much for the Crimson Tide. Its fast and powerful backs rolled up score after score, and the Tornado passing attack was equally devastating. The score of 47 was the highest against a Pottsville team since 1958. Dan Guers and Dale Klemer scored our touchdowns on sixty and forty-yard pass plays.

POTTSVILLE 27 — WEST HAZLETON 13

The Crimson Tide resumed their winning ways by beating the Wildcats with long drives. Charley Hopkins kept the drive going by getting the necessary yardage on fourth down plays. The Tide scored in every quarter after carrying the opening kickoff eighty yards. Honors were shared by Dennis Spiess, Don Fessler, and Frank Messina. Al Sykes and Frank Kostelnick helped to stop West Hazleton drives on several occasions.

POTTSVILLE 6 — LEBANON 19

Lack of ball control was the chief reason for Pottsville's fourth defeat of the season. This was the Crimson and White's worst-played game of the campaign. It seemingly could do nothing right, and the Tall Cedars played well above par. Don Fessler was responsible for our only score, which came on a 15-yard pass from Ed Ginther.

POTTSVILLE 12 — ALLENTOWN ALLEN 32

On an extremely muddy field, the Crimson Tide held down the powerful Canaries in the first half, but were unable to contain the Allen ground game in the second segment. Charley Hopkins scored one touchdown on a plunge, and Don Fessler set a school record by returning a kickoff 95 yards for our other touchdown. In this game, Co-captain Ed Keiser saw his first action of the season after having been sidelined with a leg injury.

POTTSVILLE 25 — READING 14

In the fifty-ninth meeting between Pottsville and Reading, our boys made sure the lump of coal will rest in the P. A. H. S. trophy case for the fourth consecutive year. For the first time, the Crimson Tide unleashed a potent passing attack. Ed Ginther was outstanding at quarterback, and Don Fessler and Dan Guers were lightning fast.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

No team in the East Penn League generated more excitement than did the Crimson Tide. The Pottsville team was the shortest in the league this season, but a glance at the records shows that the squad more than made up for that distinct disadvantage.

Pottsville came painfully close to winning the league championship this season. An upset first half defeat by Hazleton coupled with a stunning loss to Dieruff in a special first half playoff finished the Crimson and White.

However, no one who saw, heard, or read about the tremendous come-from-behind victory over Bethlehem on John Waters' last-second layup, or John's perfect set shot with three seconds left to beat Hazleton, will ever forget that this was one of the finest basketball teams Pottsville has ever fielded.

The team's league record, 14-4, equalled that of Dieruff and Bethlehem, the first and second half champions, respectively. The overall record of 18-5 was the best compiled at P. A. H. S. in years.

This season, John Waters became the highest scorer in Crimson Tide history. He made himself the first player in the history of the school to reach the 1,000-point plateau before the first half of the league season was over.

Coach Kline compensated for the lack of height by employing a full-court press for the entirety of the games. This method usually caused the opposition to lose its composure at some point in the game.

Although the Junior Varsity team's record was 9-13, some promising players from that squad are expected to combine with the seven returning underclassmen from the Varsity to make prospects propitious for another excellent season.

TRACK AND FIELD — 1966

Pottsville Area's 1966 Track and Field Team finished in third place in the Southern Conference Track and Field Championships at Mount Carmel, sixth place in the Penn Relays, third place in the 440-yard relay at the Lebanon Relays, and sixth in the District 11 Track and Field Championships at Allentown.

Captain Jack Dolbin smashed all scoring records as he plummeted a total of 155¾ points to break Jack Neyer's total. Fine work was also achieved by the relay team of Dan Guers, Don Fessler, Karl Lombel, and Paul Baddick.

Dolbin's records of 1966 read like a Frank Merriwell-Jim Thorpe legend. We broke the District 11 PIAA Championship broad jump record with a leap of 22 feet, 1 inch. We made three new East Penn Track League records: 100-Yard Dash—10 seconds flat; 220-Yard Dash—21.4 seconds; Broad Jump—22 feet, 1½ inches.

Dolbin created two Southern Conference records: 220-Yard Dash—22.5, tie; Broad Jump—20 feet, 7½ inches.

Jack broke three Triangular Meet records: 100-Yard Dash—9.9 seconds; 220-Yard Dash—21.6 seconds (this is also a new Pottsville Area High School record); Broad Jump—20 feet, 8¾ inches.

Dolbin was tops in the entire Anthracite Coal Region in three events: 100-Yard Dash—9.8 seconds; 220-Yard Dash—21.6 seconds; and Broad Jump—22 feet, 1½ inches.

CROSS COUNTRY — 1966

Pottsville Area High School Cross Country Team posted a 3-4 record in dual meets with Allentown, Lebanon, Wyomissing, Mount Carmel, and Weatherly during the 1966 harrier season. Pottsville Area placed fifth in the District 11 Cross Country and Championship at Southern Lehigh High School, Coopersburg, in Lehigh County.

Captain Joe Lango of the Cross Country Team created new local records. Pottsville Area used a new course in 1966 due to heavy vehicular traffic over the old Mount Hope-York Farm cross country run. Captain Lango set a new record of 11 minutes and 27 seconds in a dual meet with Weatherly. Three weeks later, Lango broke the course record at Bloomsburg State College in a dual meet with Mount Carmel over the Bloomsburg course. Lango's time was 12:05. In the final dual meet of the year, Captain Lango ran a 11-minute and five-tenths-of-a-second record run against Lebanon High School.

GOLF TEAM

The Golf Team completed its initial campaign with a record of one victory and eight losses.

Rick Norton, Tom Pfeiffenberger, and Bill George were the team's most successful players, with 85, 88, and 89 averages, respectively.

The team was opposed by Brandywine Area, West Hazleton, Allentown Allen, Blue Mountain, and Nativity.

The team's coach, Mr. Truman Drum, looks forward to a more successful season complementing a more experienced team.

ARCHERY TEAM

These girls, chosen from a large group of archers from the school, represented Pottsville High in the Spring-1966 Outdoor Schuylkill County Archery Tournament. Even though this was the first year that archery had been introduced for girls in the school, the team scored well at each of the tournaments. Pottsville, Blue Mountain, Mahanoy Area, Minersville, and Pine Grove High Schools participated in each of the tournaments which consisted of thirty-six girls. The individual scores of the Pottsville girls passed many of those of more experienced teams. Several times Arlene Horwhat came very close to taking first place. Mr. Clayton B. Shank, president of the National Archery Association of the United States, was present at one of the tournaments and commented on the fine work and skills of the girls. The girls on the team and all those who participated in archery at school have their coach, Miss Ellen Hildreth, to thank for the enjoyment they have gotten from this sport.

THE CHEERLEADERS

These peppy, enthusiastic girls have been noted for their skits, pep rallies, and support to the football and basketball teams of P. A. H. S.

The sale of pencils, booster buttons, pillows, subs, and victory dances helped with the financial problems of the girls for decorating for pep rallies, uniforms, and awards.

In March the girls are presented awards — red blazers for the seniors, silver megaphone necklaces for the juniors, and megaphone emblems for the J. V.'s.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity are under the capable leadership of Miss Ellen Hildreth.

1966 BASEBALL TEAM

Heavy graduation losses were partially accountable for the disappointing record compiled by our 1966 baseball team.

Many experienced players are returning to the 1967 squad, and it is expected that the Crimson Tide will improve over last season's performance.

CLASS HISTORY

We came to Pottsville Area High School four years ago prepared for the worst—and for the first year or so we got it. We were bullied by seniors, juniors, and sophomores alike, and even by a few eighth graders. We were led by Jesse Achenbach, Connie Barnes, Marianne Piccioni, and Marilyn Davidson, our officers, through a rugged first year at Pottsville High. It did not take us long to learn that our letter-writing was not up to Mrs. Schartel's standards or that attention meant heels together, feet at a forty-five degree angle. Ploughing through puzzling algebra, rollicking earth science, and boring Pennsylvania history was a completely unique experience and a rather frustrating one, but finally we made it to our sophomore year.

Suddenly our opportunity came to tell the freshmen to go around the other end of the lunch line, to have a real homeroom instead of a study hall, and to cut a frog into a million pieces. We made it through Six Weeks to Words of Power — or was it six months?, those impossible biology tests, and the fights to stay awake in hygiene class. It was during this year that the infamous battles between Miss Morgan and George Thomas took place and that Miss Ryan fined us a dime for every grammatical error (remember when Karen Schoeneman caught her?). Our sophomore officers were Jesse Achenbach, Pete Fox, Robie Stoner, and Bob Kuss.

With our junior year we seemed to take on a feeling of real power and responsibility. Now we could go to Stratford and, as if by magic, change the Driver Ed. car into scrap metal. But with the power came an extensive term paper on an American author, geometric proofs, our first theory tests, and first timed writings, and the determination of specific gravity. We shall not soon forget the wheedling to gain points in Mrs. Dautlick's punctuation tests and the rare ecstacy of having a big, friendly "5" staring at us on one of Mr. Naradko's perplexing quizzes. Our officers through this trying year were Jesse Achenbach, Bernie Wolf, Robie Stoner, and Dan Guers.

It has been said that one can always tell a senior, but one cannot tell him much. After three years of climbing, we finally reached the top, that glorious stage where we got to cheer, "Rocket Reading the Pottsville Way!" instead of just, "Fight, Team, Fight!" It was our turn to hold offices, to break test tubes, to disperse autographed pictures of ourselves without seming conceited. Leading us to Commencement this year were Connie Barnes, Pete Fox, Robie Stoner, and Pat Kehoe.

The senior year was symbolized by the rush to beat the deadline on Miss Gries's term paper, the pressure of college interviews, and the preparation of a Senior Play. But in all these was an element of challenge and, when completed, a feeling of satisfaction.

Now we can look back with laughter on three hundred per cent of error in experiments, club initiations, and running bleachers in gym, though at the time they seemed terribly important. Memorizing poems in German, scrawling biology drawings, and creating sufficient noise to wake the dead at the drop of a tray all helped round out our school life. Who can forget those lunches, which were no doubt straight from Julia Child's kitchen? Or the strange scents which so often emanated from the home ec. room?

Ours was the first class to make use of the planetarium and observatory. The lectures and demonstrations by Mr. Smiley will be unforgettable, particularly to us.

Let us not forget those things which we enjoyed all four years — the band buses, the Lyceum programs, the color films of the four victorious Reading games, and, best of all, the times we were told that we were the loudest in the Victory cheer.

But now it is time to leave our secure positions as high school seniors and begin an entirely different aspect of our lives — once again as rank freshmen.

—Mike Kiehner.

Mr. Rhoades	It's debatable!
Mr. Guertler	Oops! Wrong map!!
Mr. Prince	This is not a hog-calling contest!
Mr. Delpaz	It wasn't raining when we came out!
Miss Gries	Move your chairs to test position.
Mrs. Hoover	I am not a babysitter!
Mr. Portland	All right, we stay at 12:04!

MAYBE NEXT YEAR . . .

Everyone in the Senior Class will get a diploma.
We'll have an undefeated football season.
The seats in the planetarium will have head rests.
We'll have monthly editions of the Hi-S-Potts newspaper.
Mark Steinberger will run for an office and win.
More than five people will come to a track meet.
We won't have crowded lunch periods.
We'll have two days off for Teachers' Institute.
Homeroom 103 will hit $5 for Penny-A-Week.
You won't have to have a tray to be served in the cafeteria.
Mr. DiCello really will bring the opaque projector.
Mrs. Schartel won't be faced with "the worst class I ever taught."
Mr. Kiehner will get new speeches for Columbus Day.
Penny-A-Week will be called Dollar-A-Day.
The girls' basketball team will be undefeated.

SENIOR PLAY

Any play with forty cast members presents some intrinsic dilemmas. Logistics, for instance. This was only one of the barriers Mrs. Hoover had to surmount in producing a highly successful version of "Take Me To Your President."

Everyone did a fine job, but the real star of the show was "Beau," the reluctant dog.

The Senior Play of the Class of 1967 will long be remembered by anyone who was associated with it or even just saw it. Audience reaction was most enthusiastic. In fact, applause rained down like pennies from heaven (or the balcony, if you will).

CLASS ESSAYS

HISTORY CLASS

Miss Gries offers an assortment of entertainment to her first period World Problems class. She provides us with such exciting games as book reports, essay tests, and term papers. For the first half of the year, the students must pay homage to the great god of Langsam, the red history books stacked reverently on the window sill. Every student looks forward to the one night when he is allowed to have a Langsam book for his very own. But soon the blissful night with the Langsam book is over, and it must be returned to its sacred resting place on the window sill. There, Miss Gries counts every book. Woe to him who forgets his sacred Langsam book!

This is a typical history class conversation:

MISS GRIES: Describe the first Japanese aggressions in China, Bob.

BOB LEWIS: Well, the book unequivocally states that the Japanese had an unquenchable, avaricious, rapacious desire to conquer. Consequently, they gormandized the mainland of China. Hypothetically . . . furthermore . . . and finally . . . etc., etc.

MISS GRIES: You don't know what you're talking about this morning, Bob. Karen, what do you have to say?

KAREN SCHOENEMAN: Nothing. I don't know the answer.

MISS GRIES: Can you tell us a little more than that, Lilly?

LILLY HIRSCH: Giggle, giggle, giggle — It was all — giggle, giggle - a - giggle — Communist plot to — giggle, giggle — take over the world — giggle, giggle, giggle.

MISS GRIES: Good heavens! Well, what are your thoughts on the subject, Richard?

RICH ROBERTS: I was absent when we had this.

MISS GRIES: That's no excuse! You should have read it in the Langsam! Well, Fred, do you know the correct answer?

FRED SANNER: In 1931, the Japanese invaded the Province of Manchuria . . . the immediate results were . . . etc.

MISS GRIES: Very good. That's correct, Fred.

Intermingled with World Problems and Economics (the second semester course) are "entertaining" Civil Defense movies, which provide a chance to get out of class. Furthermore, these movies do give us the hope that world problems and economics will be obliterated in the event of a nuclear holocaust.

—GEORGE THOMAS.

GERMAN CLASS

As the class filed into Room 121, sitting at her desk, marking papers with her infamous red pencil, was a study in perpeual motion. Eager to begin the class, she rose and stated, "These papers are terrible! I've never had such a stupid class. Fraulein Bonchack! When will you get straightened out? One time you hand in a lovely paper, the next time you give me this. And you, back there—Fraulein Murray! You still don't know principal parts in English! How do you expect to get German? Herr Arbogast—er—Achenbach! Do you expect to get into college? Ah, hah. I've got news for you, Brother! And Herr Kiehner! Sloppy, careless errors. Will you look over your paper? Oh, no. Just put down any old thing that comes into your head."

After a few more admonitions, the formal coal-raking was over, and the vocabulary review began. All went well until Herr Semick was stumped. While he was being asked, "How do you expect to get a decent score in an achievement test?" he was also being informed of the correct word by Herr Youst. But—trapped. "Herr Youst, you don't know anything about German yourself. If you'd ever pronounce an umlaut, I'd drop over. You'd better save your knowledge for yourself, Brother!"

Following the vocabulary and the familiar statement, "I want to get on to advanced work," the class undertook a new construction, which was thoroughly covered with speed peculiar only to this particular teacher. In the ensuing round of application, the familiar sounds could be heard of "What'd it be, Fraulein Berzowski? Next—next—next—ye gods! next . . . Anyone? Take it, Herr Thomas. Yes, I thought so. And you're a senior, aren't you, Herr Thomas? Well, you had better wake up."

As the first bell sounded, the dreaded words rang out, "Tomorrow we're going to have a written review to pull up your grades. And I'd advise you to study, Herr Keiser, if you don't want another F^8."

At the sound of the second bell, the members of the class filed out, knowing they had better be prepared for anything the next day, and that amazing teacher went back to marking papers.

—MIKE KIEHNER.

SHORTHAND II CLASS

Our Shorthand II class will never forget some of the trying times we had throughout the past year.

In the beginning, none of us thought we would ever be able to pass 100 words per minute. However, by the middle of the year, many of us were taking dictation at much higher speeds. Dolores Jones's passing of 100 words per minute shocked all of us, including herself. Judy Warvel gripped her pen for "dear life." As a result, her hand would be dripping with perspiration; however, this was no problem, for she simply wiped them on Connie Barnes.

Nasty Marianne Piccioni annoyed Carol Weiss so much with her coughing that Carol would occasionally miss a word of the dictation. Consequently, Carol would assault her. Because of this and in view of the fact that Carol was slightly bigger, Marianne soon made the wise decision not to take any chances. She gave up her coughing.

Courageously and bravely, Mary Tokonitz gradually overcame her desire to chew gum at 100 words per minute as she took dictation at the same speed. Barbara Mull constantly annoyed her neighbors by snitching their pens.

Of course, this class would never have been complete without "mailable letters," which were simply dictated letters to be transcribed with the "essence of mailability." However, they were often far from it. Carol McNamee, for example, once would have had them almost perfect had she not forgotten to spell the complimentary close correctly. Nevertheless, she was a good sport about the whole situation. On the other hand, Lucille Wood would constantly give "hard-luck stories" to Joann Beres.

Though we did not exactly enjoy either dictation or mailable letters, we will certainly place them among our many memories of our days at wonderful P. A. H. S.

— GLORIA HOMA.

TRIG CLASS

Oh! The wonders of higher mathematics! How could we ever survive without such useful tidbits as the fact that:

$$\tan \frac{1}{2}\theta = \pm \sqrt{\frac{1-\cos\theta}{1+\cos\theta}}$$

In addition to such frivolities, there are more serious matters, such as our scintillating and oft-repeated discussions on the many practical uses to which trigonometry may be applied by us in our daily lives.

After all, and I quote our Trig book, "A study of trigonometry may be undertaken for its cultural value, and many study trigonometry for the pleasure they derive from it." This is typical of the sound logic displayed throughout our text.

From this summit of human thought we leap beyond the bounds of the human mind and spirit. We undertake a thorough course in the use and care of the slide rule. This is quite difficult for those of us deficient in both visual acuity and muscular co-ordination (Mark Steinberger, for example).

Fred Sanner and Rich Roberts liven up our classes with machine-like accuracy on one hand and eloquence in expressing the precisely incorrect answer shrouded in the mysteries of Greek or Latin on the other. Woe to any poor soul who makes an error in class! The miscalculation is met by a rude reaction from the "peanut gallery," the offensiveness of which varies directly as the volume.

Such reactions probably spring from the tension created by waiting fearfully for the latest test to be returned with a large red "F39" on the top.

One of our resident clowns (Joe Hopkins and Sam Deegan) is always interrupting Mr. Liddle's lecture with simple monkeyshines and occasional caustic insights into the mysterious world of trigonometry and the many benefits mankind may reap from it.

If this is high school, what will college be like?

—ERIK POLCRACK.

CHEMISTRY CLASS

With a new teacher, a new book, and a lab manual without Directed Study Exercises, Chemistry promised to be a unique class from the start. General consensus of the sixth period class indicates that the book could accurately be named Intensified Boredom. Typical of the rational and pithy approach of the authors is this statement from the preface:

> "No attempt has been made to produce a text which is encyclopedic in nature or which includes an unnecessary multiplicity of topics."

On lab day, instead of 45 minutes in the hard wooden chairs of 307, the class spends an hour and a half in the hard wooden chairs of 305. Before we collect the chemicals and apparatus needed to perform the experiment, Mr. Droskinis briefly outlines the lab procedures. With a nod of his head the familiar clatter of ring stands, Bunsen burners, and evaporating dishes begins. Donning our asbestos aprons and plastic goggles, we prepare to botch the experiment. Supposedly working in pairs, groups of eight or more have remained undetected. In a short time the crucibles, beakers, and Erlenmeyer flasks are set up, and proper amounts of chemicals have been weighed out.

When Mr. Droskinis takes occasion to leave the room, the air suddenly becomes filled with a cloud of rubber test tube stoppers, providing a dramatic demonstration of the Kinetic theory of gas. As soon as he re-enters the room, however, the air rarifies and we return to our benches.

The results of the experiments are often inconclusive with average errors of thirty per cent or more. The figures, fortunately, lend themselves to doctoring, so those of us with enough initiative can compensate for sloppy lab techniques.

One of these days, we fear, there will be a flash of light, a thunderous explosion, and . . . BOOM! — no more Chemistry!

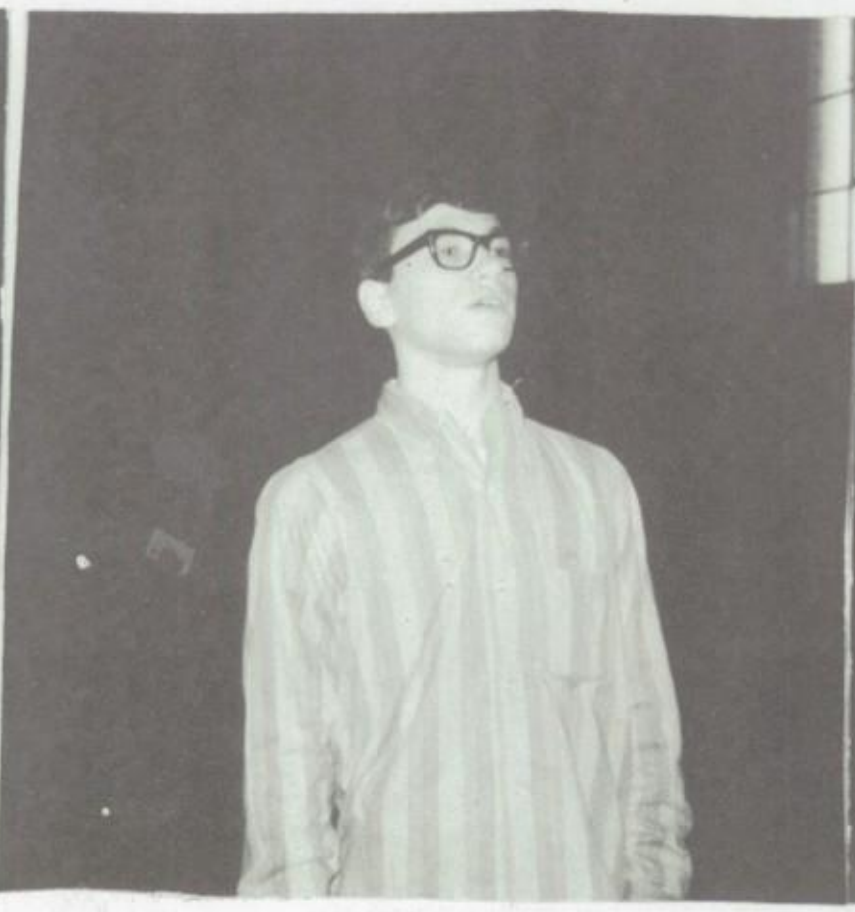
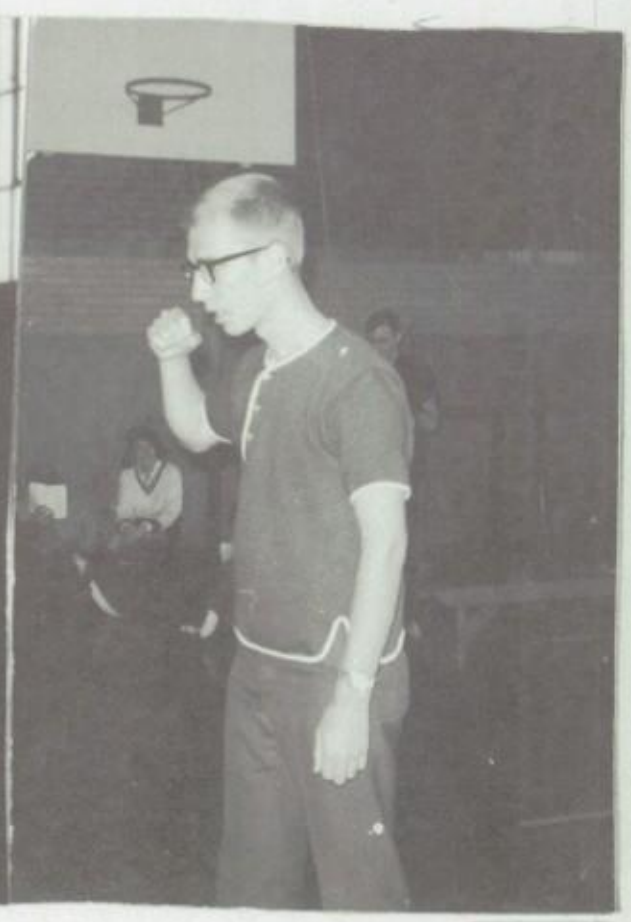
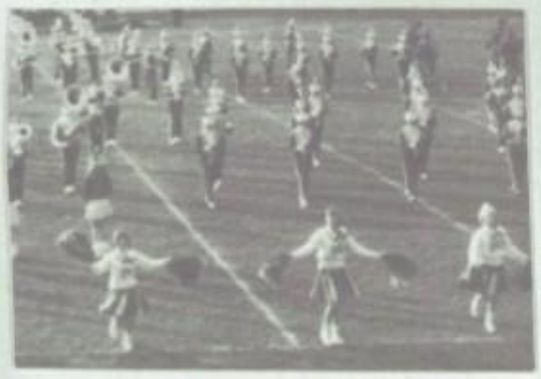
FOOTBALL QUEEN CONTEST

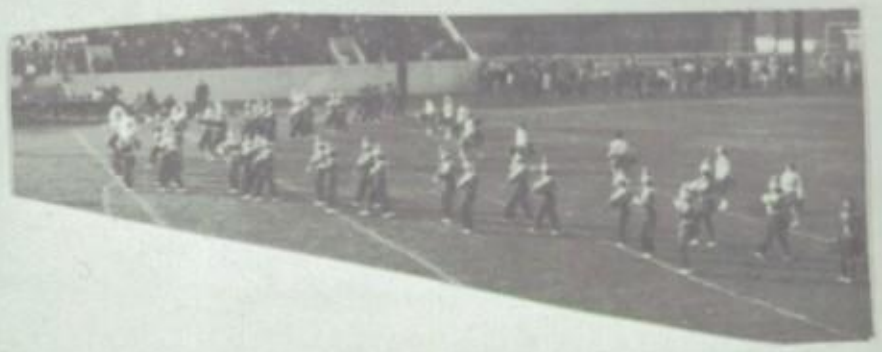
Again this year the Mothers' Booster Club sponsored the Annual Football Queen Contest. The lucky girl who sold the most patron votes was selected to be the Football Queen for the 1966 season.

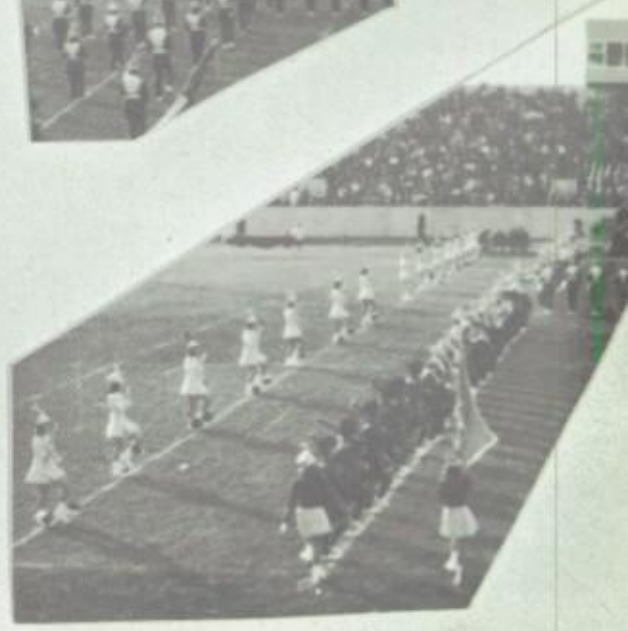
The coronation of this year's queen, Clista Witmer, took place at the Pottsville-Allentown football game. A procession of various new, shiny convertible cars carried the Queen and her Court around the stadium before the coronation. Each girl was escorted onto the football field by a member of the Senior Class.











LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven, having come to, seen, and conquered the Pottsville Area High School, do hereby make the following bequests:

To THE CLASS OF '68 . . . The spine-tingling suspense of Directed Study Exercises in Physics

To THE CLASS OF '69 . . . . . A barf-bag to use during the Driver Ed. movies

To THE CLASS OF '70 . . . . . A stock of "Privileged Character" buttons to wear in Miss Ryan's English classes

To THE CLASS OF '71 . . . . . Complete confusion at the first Pep Rally

To MR. KLINE . . . . . A steering wheel on his side of the Driver Ed. car

To MRS. DAUTLICK . . . . A Senior Class who wants to do Shakespeare for the Senior Play

To MR. DICELLO . . . . . A book entitled "Thirty Days to Better Spelling"

To MISS GRIES . . . . . A class of seniors who know how to use footnotes

To MRS. WINTERSTEEN . . . . . A classroom that she can really call her own

. . . . and we make the following individual provisions:

I, MARYANNE PICCIONI, will my cheerleading enthusiasm to LYNN MILLER.

I, KATHY DIMMERLING, will my 20/20 eyesight to JOYCE DUNHEIMER.

I, FERRIS ATTY, will my talent for breaking test tubes to RICK ALOIS.

I, BOB EMERY, will my band-bus seat to GARY HUMMEL.

I, BARBARA MULL, will my typing ability to MARY ANN HRENYO.

I, JOHN ALBRING, will my "little black book" to KARL LOMBEL.

I, MARIANNE HILDRETH, will my multi-colored hair to KAREN DUDISH.

I, COOKIE GARDNER, will my sports ability to SUZIE SANDHERR.

I, MIKE KIEHNER, will my music theory book to RICK HOSTETTER.

I, DOLORES JONES, will my kilt uniform to MARTHA MANZICK.

I, JOHN WATERS, will my basketball ability to BILL DEVLIN.

I, SUE HESS, will my black eye make-up to DIANE FETTEROLF.

I, BOB LEWIS, will my slide rule to BRUCE BROWN.

I, SAM CHIODI, will my lust for power to LYNDON B. JOHNSON.

I, KAREN SCHOENEMAN, will my book of disbelief to ROSEMARY GENTILE.

I, SAM DEEGAN, will my impartial judgment of cheers to GREG WETZEL.

The 1967 Staff thanks

MISS GRIES

for all the valuable help which she has given us in publishing this Annual.

. . . APPRECIATION . . .

The Hi-S-Potts Annual Staff of 1967 wishes to express its appreciation to:

our advertisers whose names appear on these pages, without whose assistance this book would not be possible. They are most worthy of your patronage.

the Mack and Smith Studios of Photography, who gave so unstintingly of their time and their talents.

the Pottsville Republican, for the many pictures and valuable assistance.

Seiders Printing, Inc., for their expert advice.

Mr. Robert Koslosky, for his superior counsel in artistic matters.

the faculty of Pottsville Area High School for their cooperation in all matters.
